PRESS RELEASE

“The A Performers” – The top 100 Thomas Cook UK Travel Agents

The Seaside Palm Beach welcomes the top 100 sales agents of Thomas Cook UK to a farewell cocktail

The Seaside Palm Beach Hotel hosted on Friday the 17th of June an exclusive farewell cocktail for the top 100 sales agents of Thomas Cook UK, who were enjoying a much deserved prize of 6 days holiday on Gran Canaria.

The travel agents came from all over the UK and were selected by Thomas Cook on the basis of the high sales they have achieved in the travel agencies which belong to the UK tour operator. They attended the exclusive event in cocktail dresses and dinner suits, in keeping with the elegant setting of the Seaside Palm Beach terrace alongside the pool and in the midst of the lush palm garden. Exotic cocktails were served together with a delicious selection of exquisite canapés and sushi, and an irresistible chocolate fountain in which to dip the fresh strawberries and pineapple skewers.

The 5 star cocktail was elaborated under the supervision of the renowned head chef at the Seaside Palm Beach “Peter Knauss”, who once again displayed the magnificent gastronomy for which all the hotels belonging to the Seaside hotel chain are recognized.

After enjoying the sun-downer in the company of the team from the hotel, the travel agents went on to party until the early hours before returning home the following day.
